TOWEL THE CAUSE OF SUIT

Stein, Hirsch & Co., 2841 S. Ashland av., manufacturers of starch, were made defendants in a suit filed in the superior court yesterday for $35,000 by John Gibson, 1624 N. Keeler av., who alleges that he caught a serious skin disease from a towel in the lavatory of the company.

GIRL FILES $20,000 BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Henry Kavanaugh, South Chicago saloonkeeper, 90th st. and Commercial av., named as defendant in $20,000 suit by Miss Ida Horn, for alleged breach of promise.

The Horn girl, 23 years old, recently gave birth to a son of whom she says Kavanaugh is the father. She also alleges that she met Kavanaugh four years ago when she was attending the Hyde Park high school and that he proposed marriage to her at that time. He failed to keep his promise and about four months ago went out to California, where he married. He recently arrived in Chicago with his bride.

WENT DOWN WITH HIS SHIP

London.—It is recalled that Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, who is commanding the British fleet in the North Sea, which is expected to destroy the German fleet, was captain of the battleship Victoria, which was rammed and sunk in the Mediterranean by the English cruiser Camperdown in 1893. That was, perhaps, the most famous naval accident of the last century. Hundreds of the Victoria's crew were lost. Jellicoe went down with his ship, but was picked up.
